PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE by Vince Sibona

Cold Weather Boating and Fishing. Some of us will be fishing for a few more months into colder weather and we should take precautions. Although the water temperatures will remain warm for a while, we should prepare for coming in contact with water and then cold air. Preparations should include dressing properly and having some necessary items on board. Dressing in layers and a warm hat will keep you warm and will help if you fall into the water, especially when the water temperatures do turn colder. Extra clothing, hats and a warm blanket are some items that should be on board. If someone does fall in the water, that blanket could be a lifesaver. In springtime, air temperatures can be warm, but water temperatures can be very cold, making conditions much worse. Hypothermia. Cold water robs the body of heat 25 -30 times faster than air. Any person pulled from cold water should be treated for hypothermia. Some symptoms may include intense shivering, loss of coordination and mental confusion. Try to keep the person warm and get them to a medical facility. Wearing life jackets and having a throwable Type 4 flotation ring or cushion with a rope attached is advisable as well.

Now that the fluke season is over, I'm waiting, as some of you are, for the striped bass run to start.

This will be the last President's Message and the last Newsletter for the year.

Happy Fishing Everyone!!!!...~ Vince

Blackfish
Bluefish

The rules are simple: you have to catch a fish of the above species, take it to one of our official weigh stations to have it weighed and recorded on our official weigh-in forms. FISHING REPORT by Donna Harris

I guess it's not too early to catch bass on the beach. Fished last evening and was getting some nice hits but no fish (I'm hearing there are a lot of small blues on the beach). Went back out this morning, October 2nd and caught this 16 pound bass around 7:30 this morning in Ship Bottom on a Bunker Head.

THE "SHACK" and A DESPERATE CRY FOR HELP by Vince Sibona

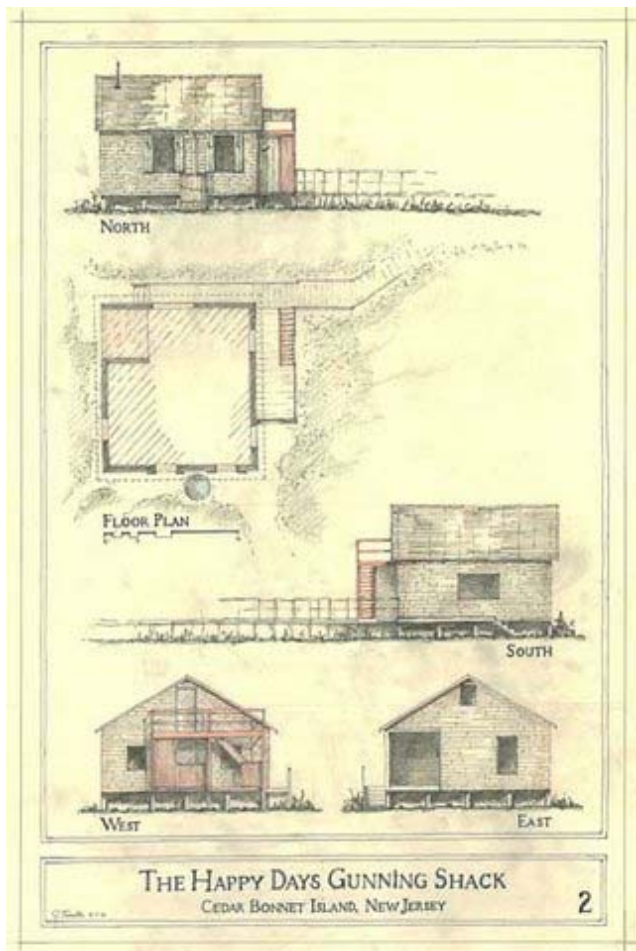

The "Shack" has had my interest for many years. A famous landmark that sits on the bay on Route 72, Cedar Bonnet Island, on the way to LBI is almost as famous as "Old Barney". Cedar Bonnet Island is part of Stafford Township. Over the years I've photographed the Shack in the different seasons of the year and more recently in stages of its deterioration and posted them with small captions in the VHFC Newsletters. Now the Shack has really gotten my attention with the new sign, "PLEASE HELP ME! WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR?" With that, I knew that I had to find out who put up the sign and find out what it was all about. I made a phone call to a friend, Tim Hart, Stafford Township Historical Society and Division Director of the Ocean County Cultural and Heritage Commission for help. Tim gave me some Shack information and he put me right on to the person responsible, not only for posting the sign, but the same person that braced up the inside of the shack to keep it from falling down and put up the flags and banners and Santa with a flag on the roof at Christmas. Tim got permission from and gave me the phone number of the person to call, Jim Yuhas. Jim was very helpful in giving me information. Jim is the one that has kept the shack from falling down and trying to preserve it. In the beginning Jim had a few friends that helped him brace it up. But legally, Jim has had his hands tied, even though there are many individuals, groups, organizations, builders, lumber companies, etc., wanting to help physically and with monetary and material donations to preserve the Shack. The problem being, no one knew who owned the property that the shack sits on. The late Wes Bell, former owner of property next to the shack with the Bill Board on it, claimed ownership without ever showing definite proof of title. Ann Bell, the widow of Wes Bell, in 2009 sold the property with the Bill Board to Chet Atkins, Jersey Shore Media. Chet Atkins claimed that the Shack property was included in the sale of the Bill Board Property and with his lawyers proceeded to investigate. Friday morning, September 16, I met with Stafford Township Administrator Jim Moran to get more information and to be brought up to date. Jim Moran informed me that he has had meetings with Chet Atkins, Tim Hart, Paul Butterick of Butterick Bulkheading and others. In August, Chet Atkins had acquired and showed proof of title of the property that the Shack sits on. Jim Moran said that the group is working together and that he and Stafford Township Engineers are coordinating the process to obtain building permits from the New Jersey State DEP and the Army Corp of Engineers and will work with the NJ State Fish and Wildlife Dept. Stafford Township will not be paying for these permits. The money will come from donations sent to the Stafford Township Historical Society. Donations in the form of checks can be made payable to the Stafford Township Historical Society, PO Box 1097, Manahawkin, NJ 08050. Please note on your check, "For Restoration of the Shack". Please include your name and address. All donations are tax deductible. The Shack may be restored, rebuilt, possibly using some of the existing materials on the Shack and probably with new pilings to support it, at its present location. If you are interested in making a donation and for more information, please visit www.savetheshack.com/built around 1957 to where it is today. The Shack was used for hunting, fishing and clamming.

A Sketch of the Shack in Better Times

A Simple Floor Plan from a Simpler Time!

Here is some history on the Shack. "Happy Days" as the Shack was called back then, was built in the 1920s on the other side of Route 72 with 2 other shacks. One other shack, fenced in, still remains on the other side of Route 72. Huey Singleton moved the shack when the Causeway Bridge was going to be

A NEW WAY TO CATCH BLOWFISH by Walt Thomas

At the September meeting, when the members had our monthly fishing discussion, Tom Malone reported that he caught a whole bunch of Blowfish while crabbing. He caught them with a hand line that is normally used for crabbing! Here are a couple of pictures for the newsletter.

Yep, those are Blowfish!

JCAA ASKS ANGLERS TO TAKE MAFMC SURVEY

The Mid-Atlantic Fishery Management Council is accepting public input through various surveys. One is a general survey while there are also fishery-specific surveys for fluke, sea bass, bluefish, porgies, and other species that are managed by their agency. This is your chance to critique their agency and to make suggestions to improve our fisheries management. JCAA encourages individuals to take these surveys by going to <http://www.mafmc.org/vision>. Below is an excerpt taken from their site.

The Mid-Atlantic Fishery Management Council is looking to you for help in developing a vision for the future of our fisheries. We are seeking your input through surveys and small group meetings throughout the region.

Over the last 35 years the Council has effectively rebuilt its managed fisheries. We are now determining how these fisheries should be managed in the future. Creating a "blueprint" for Mid-Atlantic fisheries management will allow the Council to address long-term challenges such as maintaining productive marine ecosystems and the communities that rely on our region's fisheries. We want to hear about what is working effectively, what is concerning you, and how you want our fisheries to be managed in the future. We also hope you will tell us how we can make it easier for you to participate in the Council process.

How do existing regulations create economic challenges for fishermen?

What issues do you think threaten the sustainability of Mid-Atlantic fisheries?

How can the Council better manage recreational fishing to improve your experience?

Your participation will help the Council identify long-term goals, a vision, for Mid-Atlantic fisheries. Using your input, the Council will also develop a strategic plan and use that plan to achieve a vision for our fisheries.

DUES INCREASE ANNOUNCED AT SEPTEMBER MEETING by Ray Williams

Our President, Vince Sibona, announced at last month's meeting that dues would increase to $40 per year starting in 2012. Before you get upset reading this, please remember that dues have been $35 per year for at least 10 years & our costs have risen many times since the last increase. So, please don't let this increase keep you from enjoying the benefits of club membership.

PICTURES FROM THE SEPTEMBER 17TH VHFC DINNER!

Ed Wetmore did an excellent job setting up & running our VHFC dinner this year at Antoinette's. Bill Dabney selected dinner wines for our members. All attending reported that they had an excellent time & that the food was magnificent.
